

A decorative, light brown vine with several loops and swirls, extending from the top left towards the center of the image.

LIVING EULOGY

A stylized, light brown leaf with a central vein and a small stem, positioned in the center of the image between the two lines of text.

your way

Living Eulogy - Your Way

Social Enterprise - giving back to nurses

- Led by a Registered Nurse with 28 years of healthcare experience
- Passionate about helping clients remain at home longer and live life to the fullest
- Specialising in support through:
 - NDIS
 - Aged Care
 - Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA)
- Providing compassionate and practical guidance for end-of-life planning
- Focused on holistic care that supports physical, emotional, and social well-being.

Living Eulogy - Your Way

Why Social Enterprise?

- Combines business with purpose - not just profit-driven
- Enables a sustainable model that delivers both services and social impact
- Giving back to the nursing community
- Profits support:
 - Subsidised events and education for nurses
 - Self-care initiatives to prevent burnout and support well-being
- Aims to build a community of care for clients and carers
- Extends beyond traditional EPA (employee assistance) by focusing on peer-led support and practical resources

Living Eulogy - Your Way

Where we are at?

- The business is currently in its early stages (infancy)
- Working toward DVA registration to expand access for veterans
- Actively building community partnerships
e.g., Compassionate Communities
- Long-term goal: Increase death literacy and support end-of-life planning
- Offering services not just as a nurse, but also as an End-of-Life Doula
- Focused on compassionate, person-centered care at all life stages.

Living Eulogy - Your Way

Why we are here today?

Today is about you - and your needs

I'm here to provide support, share information, and connect meaningfully.

I wanted to give a little context about why I'm passionate about this work.

If photos are taken today, please let me know if you're not comfortable with social media sharing - your privacy is important and will be respected.

Evaluation form, only to get your feedback for other events and wishes.

OUR NEXT EVENT - Friday 25th July
Nature Forest walk / tea around campfire.